WATERFIRE SHARON: The Region's Newest & Most Creative Arts Event Series - No Two Are Ever Alike!

Over fifty sparkling bonfires on the Shenango River, the aroma of cedar and pine in the air, flickering firelight and silhouettes of firetenders passing by the flames as you stroll along the river and city streets enjoying enchanting music, ethnic food tastings and performers from around the globe. Dance to the sounds of a big band under the stars in an outdoor ballroom after participating in unique arts experiences throughout the day with the entire family. This is WaterFire Sharon.

Each day-long event offers music, food and interactive arts experiences centered on a unique theme; all free of charge to the public. Actual WaterFire performances begin at dusk. Fire performers and other event entertainers add to the experience on, and around, the river; all accompanied by an enchanting mix of live and recorded music. The WaterFire Ballroom, part of the grand WaterFire installation, features live music, dance lessons, dance demonstrations and open dancing under the stars.

ArtBeat August 3, 2013

Beating drums – used in ritual ceremonies, communication, war, peace and celebration. The first WaterFire Sharon Arts Festival will feature the beat of world drums throughout the day to celebrate the interconnectedness of all cultures.

Start the day with a 5K run/walk in partnership with Community Food Warehouse and Reyer's Shoe Store, both of Sharon. Enjoy the day, with a diverse range of performances on WaterFire Main Stage and the Community Stage. Visit over 80 artists and vendors including Wendell August Forge and Dine On Vine. Spend the evening enjoying the aroma of burning cedar and pine, watching the firelight and listening to music selected just for this first lighting. Evening finishes with Dr. Zoot performing at the PNC WaterFire Ballroom.

- RACE TO END HUNGER
- INAUGURAL LIGHTING OF WATERFIRE SHARON
- UNIQUE ARTWORKS & ARTISTS
- ETHNIC FOODS AND ENTERTAINMENT
- DANCING TO THE BEAT OF WORLD DRUMS AND MUSICIANS

World Fire Sept. 14, 2013

Get your “passport” and experience the world! Downtown Sharon will be transformed by being sectioned into countries that showcase the foods, arts, dances and music of each of the cultures. At this WaterFire experience you can immerse yourself in rich cultural traditions and enjoy what each has to offer. World Fire showcases pottery for viewing, purchase and even demonstration. Watch as Raku firing takes place in the outdoor demonstration area.

Move from the melting pots to the river, as the second WaterFire lighting takes place. Keeping with the World Fire theme, take in the scenes of fire performers spin lighted poi and enchant you with other fire spectacles. Come warm up to the hot sounds of Latin dance band Azucar at the PNC WaterFire Ballroom.

- MULTI-CULTURAL FOOD, ARTS, DANCES AND MUSIC
- FIRE PERFORMERS THAT ENTERTAIN AND AMAZE
- INTERACTIVE RAKU EXPERIENCE
- POTTERY DEMONSTRATIONS AND EXHIBITION

Up & Around Oct. 12, 2013

View the extraordinary in unexpected places – Up! Let creative skill and imagination come alive as you experience performance and arts all around. You'll never look at “UP” the same way again! Visit the James E. Winner Jr. Arts and Culture Center to watch artist Paul Chojonowski burn and scorch wood and paper to create his artwork. Catch more demonstrations of this unique use of fire and water to create art throughout the day.

Spend the evening on the river enjoying the aroma of burning cedar and pine, watching the firelight and listening to music selection just for this lighting – Up and Around. Evening finishes with Shout performing inside the James E. Winner Arts and Cultural Center.

- CHANGE THE WAY YOU LOOK AT THINGS - LOOK UP!
- DEMONSTRATIONS OF ART CREATED BY FIRE AND TORCHES
- FOOD AND MULTIPLE ARTIST VENDORS
